QUILT SHOW ISSUE

Raffle quilt winner, Kathy Russi, with quilt show co-chairs Bridget Lottman and Leigh Lussie

Thanks for a Great Show!

The quilt-show co-chairs would like to extend their appreciation and gratitude to the members of the 2009 Quilt Show Committee. We were so very fortunate to have such a hard working, dedicated, and truly wonderful group of women to share the immense task of putting on a quilt show of the magnitude and scope of the AQS-Des Moines Expo 2009.

We are constantly amazed at the willingness of the DMAQG's members to volunteer and fill all the jobs that make the show the success it has been for the past two years. We could not do the job of quilt-show co-chairs without each and every person who spent many hours contributing to this outstanding effort, whether it was serving on the committee, showing your quilts, volunteering during the show, selling raffle tickets, or making "Little Quilts" for the silent auction. A special thanks to Mabeth Oxenrider for designing this year's spectacular raffle quilt, to her small group who made it possible, and to Deb Treusch who quilted it. Finally, thanks to The Quilt Block and Creekside Quilting for allowing us to use their shops for drop-off sites prior to the show. And how about all those gorgeous quilts in our show – simply amazing! We are truly a guild of talented people. Thank you all so very much!

Bridget Lottman and Leigh Lussie, Quilt Show Co-Chairs

From the President

Anita Gogerty

We had another great quilt show this year. The quilts were fabulous and there were plenty of fun shopping opportunities.

Congratulations to all the ribbon winners. Thanks so much for the endless hours donated by all the volunteers, the quilt-show committee, quilt-show co-chairs Bridget Lottman and Leigh Lussie, quilt-show co-chairs elect Barb Snuggs and Julia Shires, and the board members and the committee chairs. All your efforts made our show a success this year.

The past two years as the vice president and president of the guild have been a wonderful and rewarding experience for me. I have very much enjoyed learning about what it takes for a nonprofit guild to operate and function successfully. I also now appreciate just how much work it takes to successfully operate a quilt show. Thanks so much for giving me this opportunity.

Anita Gogerty, President

LITTLE QUILT AUCTION

A big THANK YOU goes to everyone who made a Little Quilt or bid on a Little Quilt at the silent auction. We had 154 donated items for our Little Quilt Silent Auction. In addition to the beautiful traditional little-quilt donations, we had dolls with their own quilts, zippered coin purses, an apron, and paper dolls made with fabric. Early results indicate that the proceeds will exceed $4800. Mabeth Oxenrider's replica of the raffle quilt received the highest bid of $430. She will receive a gift certificate in recognition of her amazing work. Thanks to everyone who made this fund-raising event a great success!

KATHY RUSSI WINS RAFFLE QUILT

The drawing for the "Beacon of Light" raffle quilt, designed by Mabeth Oxenrider and made by Mabeth and her small group, was the last day of the quilt show. Quilt Show Co-Chair Bridget Lottman pulled the winning ticket and guild member, Kathy Russi, won the raffle quilt. She was pleased.

Ann Fahl with her "Black-Eyed Susans on Purple"

THANK YOU, ANN FAHL

Ann Fahl, author of Coloring with Thread, joined us in September for two great lectures and three days of workshops. Ann is from Racine, Wisconsin, so she came with a wonderful trunk show of her quilts. Some of her favorite themes include cone flowers and black-eyed susans, gingko leaves, water lilies, and her black-and-white cat Oreo. Thank you, Ann.

Although Ann originally planned to include Oreo in this quilt, it didn't work out so the birds were substituted and "On the Nile" was born.
